Moonshine, Mountains & Music

June 11-14, 2018

Day 1---An early departure has you traveling to eastern Kentucky in the heart of the Appalachians, which is accented by scenic 1,100-acre Dewey Lake. Arrive in Prestonsburg, KY to check in to Jenny Wiley State Resort Park. This evening be dazzled by the Bryant Family Entertainers and their bluegrass music. Your fingers will be snappin' and toes tappin' during this performance. Time for some zzzzz's! (D)

Day 2—Start your day with Starving Artist Breakfast Buffet at the lodge. While enjoying breakfast, you will be entertained by Jason Goble, a “Starving Artist”. Jason is a singer/songwriter/guitarist from Eastern Kentucky. He fuses together country, rock and blues to create his own unique sound. Next you will depart with tour guide for a visit to the Civil War Site, Middle Creek National Battlefield where you will meet a “Civil War Soldier”. Union and Southern Forces met here on January 10, 1862 to seek military control of this strategic gateway from Virginia. Two thousand soldiers engaged in a 24-hour struggle with gun firing and cannons blazing to what led to the Union Colonel James Garfield claiming victory, and later becoming President of the United States. Afterwards tour the Historic Samuel May House where you will meet “Ms. May”. The home is the oldest brick house in the Big Sandy Valley. The Federal-style, two-story house was built in 1817 and it sits on a shallow hill, surrounded by 400 acres of timber and pasture land. The house was used by Samuel’s son, Colonel Andrew Jackson May, as a recruiting station for the Confederacy during the Civil War. May’s descendants occupied the property until 1997 when it was deeded to the city as a museum. Your day will continue with a visit to East Kentucky Science Center and Planetarium located on the campus of the Big Sandy Community and Technical College. Outer space comes alive as the GOTO Chronos Star Projector allows visitors to view the most realistic night sky simulation in the world. Lunch is included at Jenny Wiley State park which is followed by a pontoon ride on Dewey Lake. After the relaxing cruise, you will enjoy a great photo opportunity during a scenic tour of Stone Crest Mining Site, owned and operated by the City of Prestonsburg. Off we go to the Moon Shine Hide-A-Way and Tour. Enjoy a demonstration of how the old timers brewed that famous mountain “white lightin’” as directed by some typical mountain shiners who will also take up their instruments and sing a couple of Moon Shine songs; there is plenty of foot-stompin’ dancing. Later the group accents the hidden trail to an outdoor Bar-B-Q for evening music supplied by the Moon Shine Band. (Everyone will get to taste actual moonshine!) Back to lodge for the evening.....time for some shut eye. (B, L, D)

Day 3—Enjoy a full hot breakfast buffet at the lodge before departing for the day. We will depart with a local guide who will share history and highlights along the way. We will visit the Mayo Methodist Church, which was built by local coal baron, John C.C. Mayo, who donated it to the congregation in 1909. It has massive cut sandstone walls, brilliant Italian-made stain glass windows, oak support beams, and a Pichner pipe organ which was given to Mayo by Andrew Carnegie. Church is on the National Historic Register. Head for Paintsville, KY to enjoy a tour of the US 23 Country Music Highway Museum, which is dedicated to the country music entertainers who were born or lived near US Route 23 in Eastern Kentucky. The featured entertainers include Billy Ray Cyrus, The Judds, Tom T. Hall, Ricky Scaggs, Loretta Lynn, Dwight Yoakam, Patty Loveless and others. Lunch with musical entertainment is included at the Mountain Home Place. Glance back in time to the mid-1800’s to a typical rural farm in the mountains of Eastern Kentucky. You will view a short documentary narrated by Richard Thomas (John Boy) of this early mountain life. Characters in period dress will present stories of the log house, barn, blacksmith shop, church and school. Depart for a visit to Webb’s Grocery, owned by Loretta Lynn’s brother, Herman. The store dates back to 1910. You will board a shuttle to depart for Loretta Lynn’s Butcher Hollow Home Place for a highlight tour. Hear the story of Loretta and her sister Crystal as you travel along the 2-mile narrow and winding road to the hoe. Herman will give a first-hand account of his two sisters and will detail what it was like living there 60 years ago. Dinner this evening is include at the favorite place in town, Billy Ray’s Restaurant. Our evening will be topped off with a lively performance from the Big Sandy River Boat Band.....the musicians are from the Road to Fame talent competition and will provide a night of traditional country bluegrass and favorite “Americana” pop music. Back to lodge. (B, L, D)

Day 4---Rise and Shine. Enjoy breakfast at the lodge. Indiana here we come.....(B)
